Keen interest was evidenced, particularly among local breeders, in the Directors' stake for a $1,000 purse and the Joshua Evans' trophy which was open to horses owned in Pennsylvania. Rena Azoff, a daughter of Azoff, driven by Walker Garrison, won the race in straight heats from a field of twelve starters.

Williams, who is captain of the American Davis cup, announced he would default his scheduled third round singles match to Lewis White, University of Texas, who won today from W. W. Ingraham of Providence, former Idaho champlon. Williams explained his default as due solely to his desire to play double and not attempt two matches a day.

It was decided to grant the use of the campus with the following provisions:
That the city cut the grass, furnish suitable police protection to safely guard the premises, and to prevent damage to surrounding premises.

Mayor Waters has agreed to the conditions, realizing that the various baseball teams should have every facility to play evening baseball, and the grounds are now avallable for games on weekdays, no playing to be allowed on the campus on Sunday. These grounds are reserved for the men players only. In past weeks games have been played at the fair grounds, a charge being made for the use of those grounds.

SARAZEN AND HUTCHISON HOLD CENTER OF INTEREST IN NATIONAL GOLF TOURNEY

Oakmont Country Club, Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 15—(By the A. P.)—Gene Sarazen—pride of Pittsburgh and national open champion—must eliminate Jock Hutchison, of Chicago, from the national professional golf tournament tomorrow, for the second time in two seasons, or forfeit an opportunity to wear two crowns.

The Pittsburgh youngster and the veteran Scot won their 36-hole match today, decisively, as a consequence of brilliant play, particularly in the four matches tomorrow—the fourth of the tournament.

Bob Cruikshank of Westfield, N. J., will meet Charlie Rowe, Pittsburgh, and Will be in the upper bracket with Sarazen and Hutchison, in the lower bracket are Tom Kerrigan, Siwanoy, N. Y., playing John Golden, Tuxedo, N. Y., and Emil Loeffler Pittsburgh who will meet Emmet French, of Youngstown.

Sarazen and Hutchison met in the Sarazen and Hutchison met in the Sarazen and Hutchison met in the Cuici, Bridgenott, Conn. 3 and 2.

N. Y., and Emil Loeffler, Pittsburgh who will meet Emmet French, of Youngstown.

Sarazen and Hutchison met in the second round of the national professiona tournament at Inwood, N. Y., in 1921 and Gene completely outplayed Jock, winning 8 and 6.

Hutchison and Sarazen met with stiff opposition for 27 holes today but their opponents faltered on the home stretch. Hutchison eliminated Harry Hampton, Detroit, 5 and 3 while Sarasen, only one up in 18 holes, went wild in the afternoon and downed F.
T. Sprogell, Memphis, 9 and 7. Gene Glden, who is regarded by some experts as a contender for the title, shot par golf, 74, and eliminated Al Cuicl, Bridgeport, Conn., 3 and 2. French out-played R. S. Miner, of Stamford, Conn., and his 8 to 7 victory was well earned.

Sarazen is favored to win over Hutchison tomorrow, partly because of his 1921 performance and partly because he knows the course more thoroughly than the western professional. Jock has been free to admit that he does not like the course but that fact had little effect upon his brilliant playing yesterday and today.
